

Karyn A. Moscoe

Karyn A. Moscoe joined Obsidian in September 2005 as an Executive Administrator. Ms. Moscoe comes to Obsidian with an extensive administrative and procurement background within the financial, high tech, electronic, IT, medical, tax and retail industries. During the past 14 years, Ms. Moscoe has supported virtually all executive levels of small through large corporations within the commercial and government sectors. Ms. Moscoe's broad background is highlighted by extensive computer experience, scheduling high volume domestic and international travel, organizing meetings and large corporate events, and trade shows. Ms. Moscoe's diverse background allows her to complement Obsidian by taking on several responsibilities within the organization.

Ms. Moscoe is currently a notary, studied at the University of Phoenix Business Management program, holds a purchasing certificate with honors from DeAnza College in Cupertino, CA and has taken numerous courses within the APICS and NAPM associations. Ms. Moscoe was also a YPO Administrator and is an accomplished calligrapher.

Office: 503-245-8800